and about pleasure...

great specialty drinks, tasty food, good laughs - a recipe for an outstanding event

Bring your group into the club for a night of laughs. We book large parties to attend our scheduled evening performances. What a great way to offer convention guests a treat at the end of a business-filled day or to celebrate a special occasion like an upcoming wedding or birthday.

With a full service staff - including kitchen, waitstaff, and bartenders - kick back with a cold drink and sample from our delicious Tex-Mex / Southwestern style menu, cooked up fresh by California Tortilla.

We also provide in-house catering for scheduled private parties with a casual feel or for events requiring elegant catering, we recommend Corcoran Caterers to tempt you with delicious food to satisfy any appetite.

It's no laughing matter meeting your event objectives ~ unless, of course, you bring your group to the DC Improv.

who says you can't have elegant fun?
